

2014 Gindroz Prize Winner Allyson Edington

Allyson Edington is studying for a Master's Degree in the School of Music with an emphasis in Clarinet Performance and Pedagogy.

Her scholarly project focused on clarinet pedagogy in London, Amsterdam, Madrid, and Vienna from "First Notes to Performing Artists". She interviewed and observed teachers, performers, and students of all age levels. Her study/travel program included a few days of architecture infusion in Paris with the Gindroz.

While in Paris she participated in a meeting of architects who were discussing the work of the 2014 winner of the Gabriel Prize. Allyson even performed in a band concert in Austria, borrowing a uniform from the local players!

Carnegie
Mellon
University