

2011 Gindroz Prize Winner Weronika Balewski

Weronika Balewski, 2011: "A Musician's Space in Society"

Weronika was awarded the Gindroz Prize as a third year music student. An outstanding flute major, she will travel and study in Germany.

Beginning with an intensive German course in Hamburg she plans to take lessons and attend concerts in Hamburg, Leipzig, Berlin, Saarbrücken. She will perform in Saarbrücken and visit Paris with the Gindroz's during the Fete de Musique.

Her program will investigate the life of a professional orchestral musician by studying with flutists who are earning their livings in Hamburg and in Leipzig.

UPDATES

Weronika returned to CMU from her travels and in September presented to the School of Music a superb Convocation program describing her studies and travels. Her program was illustrated with slides and musical examples from her trip.

Her senior recital on March 26, 2012 received rave reviews from her teacher, Jeanne Baxtresser, and her colleagues. A portion of her recital can be viewed on youtube here.

Weronika graduates with the class of 2012 and will be attending Longy School of Music in Cambridge, MA for a Masters in Flute Performance. She will study flute with Marco Granados.

